Significant changes in the state of affairs

Takeovers Panel

The Group was involved in a Takeovers Panel (Panel) process. On 21 August 2018, the Panel received an application from Tribune shareholder R Hedley Pty Ltd in relation to the affairs of the Group. On 28 August 2018, the Panel made interim orders prohibiting the shareholders of Tribune identified in the Application from disposing, transferring, charging or otherwise dealing with their shares in Tribune. The interim orders remain in effect at the date of this report.

On 14 September 2018, the Panel made a declaration of unacceptable circumstances, finding that there has been inadequate disclosures of substantial holdings in Tribune and that the market had not been properly informed of persons who hold relevant interests in Tribune shares held by the three largest shareholders of Tribune (namely Sierra Gold Limited, Trans Global Capital Limited and Rand Mining Limited), and the associations among those. The cross-holding arrangement between Tribune and Rand Mining Limited was also the subject of the declaration. The declaration was published on 17 September 2018.

On 26 November 2018, under divestment orders by the Takeovers Panel made on 21 November 2018, 12,025,519 Rand shares in Tribune Resources Limited were vested in ASIC to sell and be held on trust for Rand pending such sale. Subsequently, Rand is no longer the registered holder of these shares and has no relevant interest under section 608(1) of the Corporations Act 2001.

Sale of gold inventory

During the half-year, the Group has sold a significant amount of the gold inventory with the proceeds used to cover working capital and the dividends that have been paid and declared to shareholders.

There were no other significant changes in the state of affairs of the Group during the financial half-year.

Auditor's independence declaration

A copy of the auditor's independence declaration as required under section 307C of the Corporations Act 2001 is set out immediately after this directors' report.

This report is made in accordance with a resolution of directors, pursuant to section 306(3)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001.

Note 2. Significant accounting policies

These general purpose financial statements for the interim half-year reporting period ended 31 December 2018 have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standard AASB 134 'Interim Financial Reporting' and the Corporations Act 2001, as appropriate for for-profit oriented entities. New or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations adopted

The Group has adopted all of the new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') that are mandatory for the current reporting period. The adoption of these Accounting Standards and Interpretations did not have any significant impact on the financial performance or position of the Group

Any new or amended Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations that are issued, but not yet effective, have not been early adopted.

The following Accounting Standard was most relevant to the Group:

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Group has adopted AASB 15 from 1 July 2018 using the modified retrospective approach on transition. The standard provides a single comprehensive model for revenue recognition. The core principle of the standard is that an entity shall recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The standard introduced a new contract-based revenue recognition model with a measurement approach that is based on an allocation of the transaction price. This is described further in the accounting policies below. Credit risk is presented separately as an expense rather than adjusted against revenue. Contracts with customers are presented in an entity's statement of financial position as a contract liability, a contract asset, or a receivable, depending on the relationship between the entity's performance and the customer's payment. Customer acquisition costs and costs to fulfil a contract can, subject to certain criteria, be capitalised as an asset and amortised over the contract period.

The Group adopted this standard from 1 July 2018 and there was no material impact on the transaction date, 1 July 2018, and balances recognised in the financial statements as a result of this adoption.

The following Accounting Standard was most relevant to the Group:

Revenue recognition

The Group recognises revenue as follows:

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue is recognised at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the consolidated entity is expected to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. For each contract with a customer, the consolidated entity: identifies the contract with a customer; identifies the performance obligations in the contract; determines the transaction price which takes into account estimates of variable consideration and the time value of money; allocates the transaction price to the separate performance obligations on the basis of the relative stand-alone selling price of each distinct good or service to be delivered; and recognises revenue when or as each performance obligation is satisfied in a manner that depicts the transfer to the customer of the goods or services promised.

Variable consideration within the transaction price, if any, reflects concessions provided to the customer such as discounts, rebates and refunds, any potential bonuses receivable from the customer and any other contingent events. Such estimates are determined using either the 'expected value' or 'most likely amount' method. The measurement of variable consideration is subject to a constraining principle whereby revenue will only be recognised to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur. The measurement constraint continues until the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. Amounts received that are subject to the constraining principle are initially recognised as deferred revenue in the form of a separate refund liability.

Sale of goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised at the point in time when the customer obtains control of the goods, which is generally at the time of delivery.

Rendering of services

Revenue from a contract to provide services is recognised over time as the services are rendered based on either a fixed price or an hourly rate.

Interest

Interest revenue is recognised as interest accrues using the effective interest method.

Other revenue

Other revenue is recognised when it is received or when the right to receive payment is established.

Note 3. Operating segments

Identification of reportable operating segments

The Group is organised into one operating segment, being mining and exploration operations. This operating segment is based on the internal reports that are reviewed and used by the Board of Directors (who are identified as the Chief Operating Decision Makers ('CODM')) in assessing performance and in determining the allocation of resources.

Types of products and services

The principal products and services of this operating segment is the mining and exploration operations in Australia, including the East Kundana and West Kundana Joint Ventures with Northern Star and West Africa.

Operating segment information

As noted above, the board only considers one segment to be a reportable segment for its reporting purposes. As such, the reportable information the CODM reviews is detailed throughout the financial statements.
