INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING 'APPOINTMENT OF PROXY' FORM

APPOINTING A PROXY

A Shareholder entitled to attend and cast a vote at the Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote on their behalf at the Meeting. The appointed proxy may be an individual or body corporate.

If a Body Corporate is appointed to act as your proxy then a representative of that Body Corporate must be appointed to act as its representative. When attending the meeting, the representative must bring a formal notice of appointment as per section 250D of the Corporations Act. Such notice must be signed as required by section 127 of the Corporations Act or the Body Corporate's Constitution.

If a Shareholder is entitled to cast 2 or more votes at the Meeting, the Shareholder may appoint a second proxy to attend and vote on their behalf at the Meeting. However, where both proxies attend the Meeting, voting may only be exercised on a poll.

The appointment of a second proxy must be done on a separate copy of the Proxy Form. A Shareholder who appoints 2 proxies may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise. If a Shareholder appoints 2 proxies and the appointments do not specify the proportion or number of the Shareholder's votes each proxy is appointed to exercise, each proxy may exercise one-half of the votes. Any fractions of votes resulting from the application of these principles will be disregarded. A duly appointed proxy need not be a Shareholder.

Note: If you wish to appoint a second proxy, you may copy this form but you must return both forms together.

CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

A corporation may appoint an individual as a representative to exercise its powers as Shareholder or as a Shareholder's proxy. If a representative of the corporation is to attend the Meeting the appropriate 'Appointment of Corporate Representative' form must be produced prior to admission, including any authority under which it is signed, unless it has been previously given to the Company's share registry.

A body corporate may appoint more than one representative but only one representative may exercise the body's powers at any one time.

VOTING ON BUSINESS OF MEETING

A Shareholder may direct a proxy how to vote by marking one of the boxes opposite each item of business. The direction may specify the number of votes that the proxy may exercise by writing the number of Shares next to the box marked for the relevant item of business.

Where a box is not marked the proxy may vote as they choose subject to the relevant laws.

Where more than one box is marked on an item the vote will be invalid on that item.

SIGNING INSTRUCTIONS

- Individual: Where the holding is in one name, the Shareholder must sign.
- Joint holding: Where the holding is in more than one name, all of the Shareholders should sign.

ATTENDING THE MEETING

Completion of a Proxy Form will not prevent individual Shareholders from attending the Meeting in person if they wish. Where a Shareholder completes and lodges a valid Proxy Form and attends the Meeting in person, then the proxy's authority to speak and vote for that Shareholder is suspended while the Shareholder is present at the Meeting.

However, a person (the Voter) described above may cast a vote on Resolution 1 as a proxy if the vote is not cast on behalf of a person described above and either:

- a) the Voter is appointed as a proxy by writing that specifies the way the proxy is to vote on Resolution 1; or

- b) the Voter is the chair of the meeting and the appointment of the chair as proxy does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on Resolution 1 and expressly authorises the chair to exercise the proxy even though Resolution 1 is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of a member of the Key Management Personnel.

Shareholders should note that the Chairman intends to vote any undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 1. Shareholders may also choose to direct the Chairman to vote against Resolution 1 or to abstain from voting.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. Introduction

This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared for the information of Shareholders of the Company in connection with the business to be conducted at the Meeting to be held at the IBIS Styles Kalgoorlie, 45 Egan Street, Kalgoorlie on Friday, 27 November 2020 commencing at 9.00am (WST).

This Explanatory Memorandum should be read in conjunction with and forms part of the accompanying Notice. The purpose of this Explanatory Memorandum is to provide information to Shareholders in deciding whether or not to pass the Resolutions in the Notice.

On the day of the AGM, the Company will follow the measures in place as set by the Australian and West Australian governments for the restriction of gatherings and the implementation of social distancing requirements in response to COVID-19.

A Proxy Form accompanies this Notice of Meeting and Explanatory Memorandum.

1. Action to be taken by Shareholders

Shareholders should read the Notice and this Explanatory Memorandum carefully before deciding how to vote on the Resolutions.

1.1 Proxies

A Proxy Form accompanies this Notice. This is to be used by Shareholders if they wish to appoint a representative (a proxy) to vote in their place. All Shareholders are invited and encouraged to attend the Meeting or, if they are unable to attend in person, sign and return the Proxy Form to the Company in accordance with the instructions thereon. Lodgement of a Proxy Form will not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting at the Meeting in person.

Please note that:

- (a) a member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at the Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy;
- (b) a proxy need not be a member of the Company; and
- (c) a member of the Company entitled to cast two or more votes may appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise, but where the proportion or number is not specified, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.

Shareholders and their proxies should be aware that:

- (a) If proxy holders vote, they must cast all directed proxies as they are directed; and
- (b) Any directed proxies which are not voted will automatically default to the Chair, who must vote the proxies as directed.

In addition:

- if a proxy is given by a body corporate, the Proxy Form must be executed in writing under the common seal of the corporation or otherwise in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act or signed by an attorney;
- if a proxy is given by a natural person(s), the Proxy Form must be executed under the hand of that person(s) or their attorney;
- to be effective, the Proxy Form and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a certified copy, must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the time for holding the Meeting or any adjourned Meeting; and
- any Proxy Form received after this deadline will be treated as invalid.

Proxy vote if appointment specifies way to vote

Section 250BB(1) of the Corporations Act provides that an appointment of a proxy may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution and, if it does:

- (a) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- (b) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands; and
- (c) if the proxy is the Chair of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- (d) if the proxy is not the Chair – the proxy need not vote on the poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed).

Transfer of non-chair proxy to Chair in certain circumstances

Section 250BC of the Corporations Act provides that, if:

- (a) an appointment of a proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution at a meeting of the Company's members; and
- (b) the appointed proxy is not the Chair of the meeting; and
- (c) at the meeting, a poll is duly demanded on the resolution; and
- (d) either of the following applies:
 - (i) the proxy is not recorded as attending the meeting; or
 - (ii) the proxy does not vote on the resolution,

the Chair of the meeting is taken, before voting on the resolution closes, to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on the resolution at the meeting.

The enclosed Proxy Form provides further details on appointing proxies and lodging Proxy Forms.

1.2 Corporate Representatives

A corporation may appoint an individual as a representative to exercise its powers as Shareholder or as a Shareholder's proxy. The representative must bring to the Meeting a formal notice of his or her appointment, including any authority under which it is signed, unless it has been previously given to the Company's share registry.

A body corporate may appoint more than one representative but only one representative may exercise the body's powers at any one time.

2. Annual Report

There is no requirement for Shareholders to approve the Annual Report.

Shareholders will be offered the following opportunities:

- (a) discuss the Annual Report which is available online at www.tribune.com.au;
- (b) ask questions or make comment on the management of the Company; and
- (c) ask the auditor questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the Auditor's Report.

In addition to taking questions at the Meeting, written questions to the Chair about the management of the Company, or to the Company's auditor about:

- (a) the preparation and the content of the Auditor's Report;
- (b) the conduct of the audit;
- (c) accounting policies by the Company in relation to the preparation of the financial statements; and
- (d) the independence of the auditor in relation to the conduct of the audit, may be submitted no later than 5 Business Days before the Meeting to the Company Secretary at the Company's registered office.

3. Resolution 1 – Adoption of Remuneration Report

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act provides that the Company is required to put the Remuneration Report to the vote of Shareholders. The Directors' Report contains the Remuneration Report which sets out the remuneration policy for the Company and reports the remuneration arrangements in place for the executive Directors, specified executives and non-executive Directors.

Section 250R(3) of Corporations Act provides that Resolution 1 is advisory only and does not bind the Directors of the Company of itself, a failure of Shareholders to pass Resolution 1 will not require the Directors to alter any of the arrangements in the Remuneration Report.

However, the Corporations Act also gives Shareholders the opportunity to remove the Board if the Remuneration Report receives a 'no' vote of 25% or more at two consecutive annual general meetings (Two Strikes Rule).

Under the Two Strikes Rule, where a resolution on the Remuneration Report receives a 'no' vote of 25% or more at two consecutive annual general meetings, the Company will be required to put to Shareholders at the second annual general meeting a resolution on whether another meeting should be held (within 90 days) at which all Directors (other than the managing director) who were in office at the date of approval of the applicable Directors' Report will cease to hold office immediately before that further meeting but may stand for re-election.

At the Company's previous annual general meeting the votes cast against the Remuneration Report considered at that annual general meeting were less than 25%. Accordingly, a further resolution relating to the Two Strikes Rule is not relevant for this Annual General Meeting.

The Chair will allow a reasonable opportunity for Shareholders as a whole to ask questions about or make comments on the Remuneration Report.

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 1. The Board encourages Shareholders to apply the same level of diligence to voting on this Resolution as for the binding Resolutions. The Chair intends to exercise all undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 1.

If the Chair of the Meeting is appointed as your proxy and you have not specified the way the Chair is to vote on Resolution 1, by signing and returning the Proxy Form, the Shareholder is considered to have provided the Chair with an express authorisation for the Chair to vote the proxy in accordance with the Chair's intention.

4. Resolution 2 – Re-election of Director – Mr Otakar Demis

General

Rule 17.4(b) of the Constitution and ASX Listing Rule 14.5 requires that at the Company's annual general meeting in every year, an election of Directors must take place. If no Directors are required to retire, the Directors to retire at the annual general meeting are those who have been in office longest since their last election, but, as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by drawing lots.

Rule 17.4(a) of the Constitution provides that no Director (except a Managing Director) shall hold office for a period in excess of 3 years, or until the third annual general meeting following his or her appointment, whichever is the longer. Pursuant to rule 17.4(a) a Director may elect to retire and seek re-election.

Accordingly, Mr Otakar Demis will retire pursuant to rule 17.4 and being eligible, seeks re-election.

Election of Otakar Demis

Mr Demis, who has served as a Director since 26 July 1990, retires by rotation and seeks re-election.

a) Qualifications and other material directorships

Mr Otakar Demis' is a private investor and businessman with several years' experience as a director of the Company. He is also Non-Executive Chairman and Joint Company Secretary of Rand Mining Limited (ASX:RND).

b) Independence

If elected, the Board does not consider that Mr Demis will be an independent director as he is also a director of Rand Mining Limited, which was previously a substantial shareholder of the Company.

c) Directors recommendation

The Board (excluding Mr Otakar Demis) support the re-election of Mr Demis and recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 2. The Chair of the meeting intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 2.

5. Resolution 3 – Amendment to Constitution

General

Resolution 3 is a special resolution proposing amendments to the Constitution in the manner set out below. Under section 136(2) of the Corporations Act, a company may modify or repeal its constitution or a provision of its constitution by special resolution of Shareholders. Accordingly, at least 75% of votes cast by Shareholders present and eligible to vote at the Meeting must be in favour of Resolution 3 for it to be passed.

Reason for the proposed amendments

On 1 December 2019, ASX implemented a number of rule changes to make aspects of the listing process and ongoing compliance with the listing rules more efficient for issuers and for ASX.

These changes included the introduction of a two-tier escrow regime where ASX can (and will) require certain more significant holders of restricted securities and their controllers to execute a formal escrow agreement in the form of Appendix 9A, as is currently the case. However, for less significant holdings, ASX will instead permit entities to rely on a provision in their constitution imposing appropriate escrow restrictions on the holder of restricted securities and to simply give a notice to the holder of restricted securities in the form of a new Appendix 9C advising them of those restrictions.

As a result of the above changes, a company now cannot have any restricted securities on issue unless the constitution includes the wording required in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 15.12, as set out below. Accordingly, the Company is seeking Shareholder approval to amend the Constitution to meet the requirements of ASX Listing Rule 15.12.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution

It is proposed that a new clause 32 be inserted into the Constitution to read as follows:

32 RESTRICTED SECURITIES

While the Company is on the official list of ASX, the Company must recognise and comply with the Listing Rules with respect to Restricted Securities. Without limiting the generality of the above:

- (a) a holder of Restricted Securities must not Dispose of, or agree or offer to Dispose of, the securities during the escrow period applicable to those securities except as permitted by the Listing Rules or ASX;*
- (b) if the Restricted Securities are in the same class as quoted securities, the holder will be taken to have agreed in writing that the Restricted Securities are to be kept on the Company's issuer sponsored subregister and are to have a Holding Lock applied for the duration of the escrow period applicable to those securities;*
- (c) the Company will refuse to acknowledge any Disposal (including, without limitation, to register any transfer) of Restricted Securities during the escrow period applicable to those securities except as permitted by the Listing Rules or the ASX;*
- (d) a holder of Restricted Securities will not be entitled to participate in any return of capital on those securities during the escrow period applicable to those securities except as permitted by the Listing Rules or ASX; and*
- (e) if a holder of Restricted Securities breaches a restriction deed or a provision of this Constitution restricting a Disposal of those securities, the holder will not be entitled to any dividend or distribution, or to exercise any voting rights, in respect of those securities for so long as the breach continues.*

For this purposes of this clause 32, Holding Lock and Dispose has the meaning given to it in the Listing Rules and Disposal has the corresponding meaning.

A copy of the Company's Constitution which incorporates the new provisions is available for review by Shareholders at the Company's website at tribune.com.au and at the office of the Company. A copy of the Constitution can also be sent to Shareholders upon request by contacting the Company by phone on (08) 9474 2113.

Shareholders are invited to contact the Company if they have any queries or concerns.

If this Resolution is passed, the Constitution will be amended in the manner set out in Section above, and the Company will have the ability to issue restricted securities in compliance with the ASX Listing Rules. If Resolution 3 is not passed, the Constitution will not be amended, and the Company will not be able to issue restricted securities until such time as Shareholders approve such amendments to the Constitution.

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 3. The Chair of the meeting intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 3.
